FUNERAL OF MISS GERRY.

Attended by Many Prominent People—Honored by the Daughters of the Revolution.
The funeral of Miss Emily L. Gerry, the last surviving child of Vice President Elbridge Gerry, who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, took place from her late residence, 335 Temple street, yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and was attended by a great many friends of the deceased, who at the time of her death was over ninety-two years old. The services were simple but impressive, and were conducted by Rev. Drs. Harwood and Beardsley. The pallbearers were Messrs. Eli Whitney, Dr. David L. Daggett, Henry T. Blake, Captain Charles H. Townsend, President Dwight of Yale and Professor George E. Day. A quartet sang finely.

Well represented at the obsequies was Mary Clap Wooster chapter of the Daughters of the Revolution, of which the deceased was a prominent member and officer. Miss Gerry was very proud of her family's revolutionary record and ancestry, and willingly accepted the regency of the Mary Clap Wooster chapter, D. A. R., at the time of its organization—a position which she held until her death.

In honor of her nearly all the officers and a large delegation of the members of the society attended her funeral, and among the floral tributes heaped about the casket was one from the Mary Clap Wooster chapter—a magnificent wreath of ivy, knotted with blue violets and white hyacinths—the society's colors.
The quartet which sang was composed of Miss Gaffney, Miss Hofer and Mr.
Langdale and Mr. Smith. The selections sung were "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Asleep in Jesus." The interment was in the family lot in the Grove street cemetery. Mr. Blair, an old friend of the family, and Mr. May-cock, of Lewis & Maycock, were the undertakers in charge.

An Ancient Masonic Document.
Past Master James D. Dowell of Hiram lodge No. 1, F. and A. M., of this city, has recently come in possession of the original application paper signed by James G. Percival, the poet, to join "Old Hiram" in 1822. The document bears the name as a voucher of William H. Jones, who was master of this lodge from 1821 to 1824. He was also postmaster of this city at one time. The document is in a good state of preservation. Mr. Jones was succeeded as master of this old historical lodge by Hon. Charles A. Ingersoll in 1824.

Of course, bottles aren't

Not So with

The Broad Hint

We gave to business men took effect. Bankers, Brokers, Butchers, Builders, Grocers, in fact all men who keep shop or office, who have a business of their own, are careful not to pay reckless prices for the bunch of bookkeeping books and various other books required to run a business.

Then take paper and envelopes and tablets, lead pencils, pens, ink, mucilage, etc., why the expense foots up high enough even at our low prices.
We mean now, prices for this week. Big Stationery Sale, you know. Only that doesn't express it. You'll interpret it properly upon a comparison of articles and prices. Come around, gentlemen, not for our sakes, but for your own pocketet's sake.

Bargain Table No. 1.

Rockers.

Our arrangements for the Holiday Furniture trade were of course extensive. Everything went in Rockers, save a few dozen of a $4.98 line. If they suit you, take 'em along at $3.98.

A new turn at the Stationery Counter is making it easier than ever to obtain Visiting Cards. Make you 50 neatly engraved cards, with the plate included, for 98 cents.

For Your Eyes.

14-karat seamless gold filled Spectacle or Eyeglass frames, 98 cents a pair. Those who received Christmas presents of Glasses bought at the Big Store can have them exchanged for others, providing the lenses do not suit the eye. No charge for testing eyes, Optical Counter, Temple street Side.

The Portieres

Sold faster than we thought they would, but your pair is here without a doubt. Really we had no business to suspect they wouldn't go fast. $3.98 a pair is honestly less than

Connecticut Clothing Co., Great Assignee Sale. Part Second, Volume 1.

ASSIGNEE'S PREFACE.

Again I ask the kind indulgence of the people of Southern Connecticut and to all those who were interested in the first part of this great work of facts, truthful announcements and legitimate, honest transactions. For three weeks a Clothing Sale has been in progress at the stores of the Connecticut Clothing Co., which was remarkable, not only for the large proportions it attained, but also for the impetus it received for the correctness and non-exaggeration of its announcements. Notwithstanding the large amount of goods sold since this sale has been in progress, there is enough left to more than comfortably fill three-quarters of the clothing stores in New Haven. It is with the balance of this stock that this Part Second will deal with it. And in order to make this part of the story even more interesting and exciting than our opening chapters, I have determined to make a still deeper cut into the almost amputated prices of our previous announcements. Each installment of this new work will be a revelation, each chapter a temptation. Yours truly, E. L. RIPLEY, Assignee.

CHAPTER 1. Look into the spacious west window of the Connecticut Clothing Co.'s store. There you will find a few $8.00 Men's Suits, a large assortment of Men's $10 Suits, with a few sprinkling of $12, $15 and $18 Suits. YOUR CHOICE $4.00. Not all the latest style, and a good many of them are odds and ends, but the price is so ridiculously low that you won't mind a little thing like that if you can get your size.

CHAPTER 2. 180 Blue Ribbed Chinilla Ulsters, well made and trimmed, a splendid Coat for anyone wanting a comfortable Storm Coat. Not high at $12. MARKED DOWN TO $5.65. Positively the greatest bargain ever shown in New Haven.

CHAPTER 3. About 85 more of those All Wool Blue and Black Kersey Overcoats, cut long, single and double breasted; price before Christmas $9.50, marked down from $15. PRICE NOW $8.50.
